What previous Customers Have Said about this Holiday 'Just to say that we had a wonderful vacation. Buenos Aires is tremendous and our dancing has improved by leaps and bounds. The tour host was an excellent host and looked after us well.' 'Brilliant.' Just a note to thank you for sorting out the holiday. Our tour host was fantastic and a very warm lady to deal with and made everyone feel as if they were VIPs. At all the Milongas and dinners we seemed to get the best seats in the house and I did feel as if I was some kind of visiting diplomat. The people were very friendly. I learnt a lot about tango that I simply haven't been taught here in the UK. Things such as the music count, the different styles of tango and different exercises I can do to help me improve. It was also the first time I decided to get a private lesson on a holiday. Anyway overall it was a great time. Thank you once again for sorting things out.' 'Perfect organisation. Excellent value for money. Intense, serious and stimulating tuition. Iguazu was a knockout.'

Is this holiday for me? Yes! This trip is the ultimate dance holiday - perfect both for relative beginners and experienced Tango dancers as well as anyone interested in exploring one of the world's most fascinating cities. And for a relatively small supplement you can add on an extension to the world-famous Iguazu Falls, Mendoza wine region or Patagonia. Whilst tuition is offered at all levels (Complete Beginners to Advanced) we would recommend beginners have at least 1 or 2 classes before they go so as not to be perhaps intimidated by attending the local Tango venues at night. In addition to a fabulous week of tango, our aim is to ensure that you experience the "real" Buenos Aires by visiting cultural gems off the main tourist trail, as well as some of the best milongas frequented by locals, becoming a part of the city rather than an observer. Our expert local knowledge enables us to bring you a truly memorable Buenos Aires experience.

Food and Meals	A Buffet Breakfast is included in your holiday. Lunch and Dinner are not included in your holiday.

The base of Argentinian food is beef which is often cooked 'a la parilla' (barbeque) and served with salad. Roasted meat ('asado') is also a favourite. Pasta is widespread along with pizza and hamburgers. Vegetables are low on the ground - what you will see will probably be potatoes, tomatoes, lettuce, onions and garlic. Starters are often empanadas (meat pastries, although the filling can vary, vegetarian empanadas are usually corn and spinach), chorizos or morcillas (pork, blood sausages) an assortment of achuras (sweetbreads). To finish off, one might choose a nice flan (custard), topped with dulce de leche and some whipped cream.

In addition to Argentinian food restaurants, Buenos Aires has many restaurants offering food from all over the world: Italian, Spanish, Japanese, French, Scandinavian, Mexican, Chinese, North African, Turkish, Armenian.

Vegetarianism: It is worth mentioning that much of Argentinian food focuses on meat. However, Buenos Aires is a cosmopolitan city with a panoply of restaurants offering cuisine for all tastes.

The food and water The chances of falling sick because of what you eat are as unlikely as back home. However some people are upset by the change in diet. This can be minimised by ordering carefully. Tap water is safe in the urban areas but less so in rural areas of Argentina, especially in the rainy season (Argentina's autumn and spring). Bottled mineral water is readily available and perhaps recommended for those on short stays.

Iguazu Falls lie on the Argentina/Brazil border and are a UNESCO World Natural Heritage Site. The falls are part of a singular practically virgin jungle ecosystem protected by Argentine and Brazilian national parks on either side of the cascades. Two thirds of the falls are on the Argentinian side of the river where you can also tour Iguazú National Park where there are jungle trails and bird hikes. Plan a full day in the park to fully enjoy the wildlife flora and fauna. During the rainy season of November - March, the rate of flow may reach 450,000 cubic feet (12,750 cubic m) per second.

Taller than Niagara Falls, twice as wide with 275 cascades spread in a horsehoe shape over nearly two miles of the Iguazu River, Iguazú Falls are the result of a volcanic eruption which left yet another large crack in the earth. It is possible to see the falls and surrounding area in a lightning trip but it is better to plan at least two days. You may take boat rides out to the falls. The light is best in the morning for photographs. From the Argentine side you can take a series of catwalks over the water rushing into Devil's Gorge. Protective rain suits are provided. The best times to see Iguazu Falls are in the spring and fall. Summer is intensely tropically hot and humid, and in winter the water level is considerably lower. Downstream from the falls where the Parana and Iguazu rivers meet, so do the borders of Argentina, Brazil and Paraguay. Each country has created a landmark in their national colors on a spot in each of their countries where you can see all three.

Making your own way to your Hotel: You can easily make your own way to your Hotel. Ezeiza Airport is 15 minutes drive away from the centre of Buenos Aires. Public transport between the Airport and the city centre functions on a 24 hour basis.

What to Expect in terms of Organisation

On Arrival: You will receive information on the Festival and other helpful tips on arrival.

Independence during your holiday and free time: You are fully independent on this holiday. Although your holiday is carefully organized and coordinated, we believe our guests do not like to be over-organised. So we give you quality information with all the addresses of where there are dance activities. You can decide for yourself if and when you want to turn up. We encourage you to explore Buenos Aires during your stay. This can be done when you please around the dance classes and Milongas at night.

Club Dance Holidays Host: Your holiday tour host is there to make your holiday as enjoyable as possible. Club Dance Holidays Tour Hosts are a cut above your typical Holiday Rep with a lightness of touch that enables you to get the best out of your holiday without being in the least bit interfering. We make sure you get the best out of the destination even though you are there for a relatively short time and we do this through our local knowledge and our knowledge of dance. Club Dance Holidays Tour Hosts normally offer much more of themselves than you would expect including making sure your nights are sociable and fun often well into the small hours if that is your whim. During the daytime the level of participation and presence of Club Dance Holidays tour hosts varies according to the nature of each holiday and its destination.

Welcome Drink: At the start of the week, you will be invited to a drink.

Getting Around: The transport to the dance studios and the milongas in the evenings is included in your holiday. At other points on the itinerary you may wish to share taxis. A cheaper alternative is the metro ('subte'), efficient and cheap.

Before Your Go

Books on Buenos Aires: Of the books we have read about Buenos Aires or Argentina these are the ones we would recommend.
Footprint Argentina Handbook, Footprint Handbooks - Factual Travel book.

Bad Times in Buenos Aires, Miranda France (travel writing) - Excellent insight into the psyche and character of the portenos (citizens of Buenos Aires), the place that Tango holds in Argentina and the Argentina's perception of its own identity.

Time Out Guide to Buenos Aires, Time Out Guides - Factual Travel book.

Budgeting for your holiday: Here are some guidelines on prices, to help you do your own calculations. Please refer to the optional extra section of the fact sheet for the prices of the optional extras.

Three course meal including drinks in the centre of town: 35-50 pesos

Taxi ride across town: 5 pesos

Rum and coke in a nightclub: 10 pesos

Beer in a bar/cafe: 3 pesos

Coffee in a bar/cafe: 2 pesos

Entrance to a monument or museum: 8 pesos

Passports: These must be valid for at least six months beyond the length of stay. Please check your passport now. You should carry your passport with you at all times. It is illegal not to have identification.

Visas: Visas are not necessary for US citizens, Canadian citizens, British citizens, nationals of other Western European countries and citizens of neighbouring countries who are given a tourist card on entry and may then stay for three months.

Health and Fitness: There are no particular health requirements for a dance holiday. However you should be able to dance for at least two hours a day in order to be able to enjoy the dance classes. Please inform us if you have any medical conditions that we need to be aware of.

Vaccinations: The following vaccinations are recommended for Argentina: typhoid, poliomyelitis, tetanus, infectious hepatitis A & B. Please consult your own GP in respect of which vaccinations you should have.

Luggage Labels and Lost Luggage: We strongly recommend that you secure your luggage before flying by all means possible – tape and locks. You should attach large and clear labels to your luggage with your name, flight number and destination, ie: Hotel Waldorf, Buenos Aires. Do not put travellers cheques, jewellery or money in your suitcase. In the unlikely event that your luggage is lost during the journey you need to independently take the matter up directly with the airline at the airport in Buenos Aires.

Keeping your valuables safe: Our advice is to leave unnecessary valuables at home. Do not leave your luggage unattended at any time and ensure that there is some way of locking or padlocking your suitcase or travel bag on the occasions where the luggage needs to be left in the bus or in the reception of the hotel. We suggest that you keep your passport, travellers cheques, dollars and other important valuables in the Hotel safes.

Insurance: This is a condition of booking please refer to the brochure for details.

Travel Documents: You receive these when you have paid for your holiday in full and we have received your airline tickets. In some cases the airlines do not release the tickets until five days before the departure date. We also confirm the address and phone number of the hotel and the emergency contact numbers.

Essential equipment and clothing to bring

Useful Things to Bring: Shoes suitable for walking around the streets
Sunglasses
Sun cream
Insect repellent/anti-mosquito spray
Antiseptic cream in case of bites
Money belt
Money, plane ticket, full valid passport, visa
This fact sheet

What to wear for dancing: We recommend that you bring shoes with a leather sole for the dance classes. You may also be wise to bring shoes with a rubber sole as the floors in the evenings might be somewhat "fast" and they will give you an alternative. Your shoes should be comfortable and supportive. Wear lightweight cotton socks to avoid sweaty and blistered feet! It is probable that you may get through quite a few clothes in the classes and dancing at night (you can get quite hot!) so bring a variety of outfits. Wear comfortable loose clothing for the classes. The Tango events will be quite smart – do bring some smart outfits with you for the evenings.

At Your Destination

Banks and Money: The currency in Argentina is the Argentine Peso (ARS) and this is the currency that you will use on a daily basis (public transport, taxis, shopping, restaurants). US$ bills are also accepted in some restaurants and shops. If you take foreign currency, it is best to take US$ or euroscash rather than sterling. Though the risk of loss is greater than with travellers' cheques, better rates and lower commissions can usually be obtained for cash. Bank opening hours are Monday - Friday, 10am - 3pm. Cash machines are available throughout Buenos Aires and are open 24 hours. Travellers' cheques are generally difficult to change, especially in smaller towns and at weekends. Transactions can take a long time and there is a 3% tax and banks generally charge about 4% commission though can be as high as 10%. Commission can be avoided if you go to a branch of the issuing bank, especially if changing small amounts. Hotels will normally change travellers' cheques for their guests (often at a rather poor rate). American Express, Visa or Thomas Cook US$ travellers' cheques are the better known variety. Credit cards are readily accepted in all main towns in Argentina. There is a high surcharge on credit card transactions in many establishments; many hotels offer reductions for cash. It is hard to miss in the media the news that Argentina is currently suffering an economic crisis. In order to give Argentinians a chance of travelling with the money that they have, there are sometimes 2 prices (one for tourists and one for Argentinians) in the tourism sector. Generally, your holiday will not be affected by the economic situation. The Festival informs us that there is no more crime in the street than in other big cities, such as London, Paris or Barcelona.

VAT return: At the airport you may obtain a VAT reimbursement corresponding to any purchases made within the country for an amount over $70 (per invoice) and in shops operating with the "Global Refund" system.

Tipping: Service charges are not usually included in the bill. 10% of the amount of the bill is usually left in cafeterias and restaurants. Doormen, porters, and ushers in cinemas and theatres are also generally tipped.

Local Time: GMT -3.

Electricity: 220 volts 50 cycles AC (continental round pin plug).

Making friends with the Locals and people not on the holiday: If you make friends with a local and would like them to come along to the activities organised by us, then just ask your Tour Host and except for the dance classes and provided they pay their way there should not be a problem. We are here after all to interact with the locals. Generally, however, we discourage British people who are not on the holiday from coming out with us or joining the activities and we ask for your discretion in this respect.
